According to U.S. Immigration regulations, undergraduate students must register full time (as required by academic program) to maintain legal status in the US. However, for the reasons listed below, a reduced course load may be permitted and the student will still be considered in status.

Students must receive approval of the Designated School Official (DSO) before reducing their course load. A student who drops below a full course of study without the prior approval will be considered out of status. (Exception: Medical Condition)

Please check appropriate box:
